DISHWASHERS

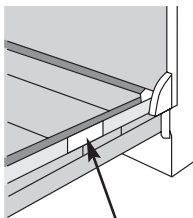

OWNERS OF THE ABOVE APPLIANCES MUST ACT IMMEDIATELY ON THIS SAFETY NOTICE.

Our quality control programme has identified that a purchased connector component presents a potential risk of fire in some series of AEG-Electrolux and ZANUSSI-Electrolux dishwashers. No product bought before July 2006 is affected. Models with this potential problem are listed in the table below.

The Model (Mod), PNC and Serial Number (S.N.) of the dishwasher are printed on the rating plate on the right side of the dishwasher door as indicated in the drawing below. The location of the rating plate is also shown in the user guide that came with the appliance.

If the model number matches one in the table below and falls into the given serial range then the dishwasher is an affected model.

	IZZI ALU	911915225
	ZSF6161 N	911916260
	ZSF6161 X	911916265

Mod.	ZDF	Type
PNC	911 YYY	220-
S.N.	627 ZZZ	2200V

Only the following serial numbers are affected: 62700001 to 64099999 and 70800001 to 71699999

Consumers owning one of these dishwashers should contact our Hotline on 0800 7076258 between 8.00am and 6.00pm Monday to Friday, or between 9.00am and 5.00pm Saturday and Sunday, or complete the Freepost coupon below in order to arrange for a free-of-charge visit from a service engineer to rectify the fault.

Please note: If you are the owner of an affected model you must stop using your dishwasher and switch off the appliance.

This safety notice does not affect any other AEG-Electrolux or ZANUSSI-Electrolux appliance.

We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause and thank you for your co-operation.
